IICLE Names Hinshaw Attorney William Cook its 2024 Publications Contributor of the Year

November 25, 2024

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that the Illinois Institute for Continuing Legal Education (IICLE) has named Chicago associate William Cook as its 2024 Publications Contributor of the Year.

The IICLE is a premier provider of continuing legal education in Illinois. Founded in 1961, the Institute publishes a comprehensive set of handbooks designed by and for Illinois attorneys.

Cook has contributed nine chapters to IICLE handbooks, including chapters in the 2024 Edition of the Causes of Action: Contract and Business Disputes, Dramshop Act Practice, the 2023 Edition of Contract Law, and the 2023 Edition of Wrongful-Death and Survival Actions.

In his legal practice, Cook represents clients in matters involving contract disputes, catastrophic torts, and wrongful death claims. He handles managed care disputes, payment issues, and treatment denials for both in-network and out-of-network providers. Cook also handles cases involving employee benefit plans, healthcare litigation, consumer fraud, data privacy, corporate disputes, and securities fraud. Additionally, he advises on construction litigation and alarm-related matters.
