

News

Daniel Shatz Named to Attorney Intel's Top 25 Financial Services and Insurance Attorneys of 2025

April 25, 2025

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Miami partner Daniel Shatz has been named to Attorney Intel's Top 25 Financial Services and Insurance Attorneys of 2025.

The publication noted that Shatz and other honorees "play a crucial role in maintaining the stability and integrity of financial and insurance markets." It added: "Whether advising on M&A deals involving representation and warranty insurance or litigating coverage disputes that impact billions in claims, their guidance is essential to ensuring legal and financial compliance."

According to Attorney Intel, this year's awardees "were selected through a methodical process and careful consideration of each candidate's career track record and industry contributions."

Shatz represents clients in complex business and insurance coverage disputes. He adeptly handles all stages of litigation, including regulatory investigations, mediation, settlement conferences, evidentiary hearings, and trials.

Before joining Hinshaw, Shatz gained extensive litigation experience at local and national law firms, handling a variety of matters such as intellectual property, employment, probate, zoning, and insurance coverage. He has represented clients in individual and class actions across state, federal, and bankruptcy courts.

View the full list of honorees.

Attorneys

Daniel C. Shatz

Offices

Miami