

News

David Levitt Elected to the Board of Managers of The Decalogue Society of Lawyers

August 1, 2025

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that David Levitt has been elected to serve on the Decalogue Society of Lawyers' Board of Managers. He was officially inducted at the organization's 91st Annual Installation and Awards Dinner on July 31, 2025, where the Honorable Timothy Evans, Chief Judge of the Circuit Court of Cook County, administered the oath of office.

David will serve on the board for a one-year term. He has presented continuing legal education (CLE) for the Decalogue Society on topics including the First Amendment and hate speech.

A trial lawyer with over 45 years of experience, David focuses on intellectual property, insurance, and trucking. He also advises clients on data privacy compliance, including GDPR and CCPA regulations. David represents trucking companies in accident claims and is a founder of the Trucking Industry Defense Association (TIDA). At Hinshaw, he leads the intellectual property practice and is a certified mediator trained at Pepperdine University.

The Decalogue Society of Lawyers was established in 1934 and is governed by a Board of Managers that includes esteemed judges and attorneys dedicated to meeting the needs of its members and serving the broader legal community. Learn more about the Decalogue Society's Board of Managers on their website.

Attorneys

David H. Levitt

Service Areas

Copyright

Intellectual Property

Privacy, Security & Artificial Intelligence