

News

Kelechi Ajoku Re-Elected to the Executive Board of St. John's University School of Law Alumni of Color Chapter

August 6, 2025

The law firm of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP is pleased to announce that Kelechi Ajoku has been re-elected to serve on the Executive Board of the St. John's University School of Law Alumni of Color Chapter ("AOCC") for the 2025 – 2026 term.

The AOCC Executive Board aims to "elevate, engage, and empower" the St. John's University School of Law alumni and students of color by creating opportunities to reconnect, amplify alumni voices and perspectives, and celebrate their accomplishments.

Kelechi represents companies in labor and employment litigation involving claims of discrimination and harassment from inception to trial. She also offers employment training and shares thought leadership insights on these issues, including via her new role as co-editor of Hinshaw's Employment Law Observer blog publication.

As a student at St. John's University School of Law, Kelechi participated in several organizations, including serving as president of the Black Law Students Association and as a member of the school's Entertainment, Arts, & Sports Law Association.

Learn more about the St. John's University School of Law Alumni Association on their website.

Attorneys

Kelechi Ajoku

Service Areas

Labor & Employment