Dan L. Boho Inducted into the International Academy of Trial Lawyers

March 23, 2015

Dan L. Boho, of Hinshaw & Culbertson, LLP in Chicago, IL was recently inducted into the International Academy of Trial Lawyers (IATL) at their Annual Meeting held March 18-21, 2015.

The International Academy of Trial Lawyers limits membership to 500 Fellows from the United States. The Academy seeks out, identifies, acknowledges and honors those who have achieved a career of excellence through demonstrated skill and ability in jury trials, trials before the court and appellate practice. Members are engaged in civil practice on both the plaintiff's and the defendant's side of the courtroom, and the trial of criminal cases. The Academy invites only lawyers who have attained the highest level of advocacy. A comprehensive screening process identifies the most distinguished members of the trial bar by means of both peer and judicial review. Mr. Boho has been evaluated by his colleagues and the judges in his jurisdiction and has been highly recommended by them as possessing these qualifications and characteristics. In addition, Mr. Boho is the only new Fellow in the State of Illinois in the past two years.

Dan Boho has a national trial and mediation practice with verdicts in Illinois, California, New York, New Jersey and Pennsylvania and appearances as pro hac vice counsel in 18 states. He is the Secretary and immediate past General Counsel of the 22,000 member Chicago Bar Association. He also serves on a pro bono basis as the General Counsel for the Chicagoland Chamber of Commerce.

Chartered in 1954, the Academy's general purposes are to cultivate the science of jurisprudence, promote reforms in the law, facilitate the Administration of Justice, and elevate the standards of integrity, honor and courtesy in the legal profession.
