

News

Tom H. Luetkemeyer Receives Loyola University School of Law's Francis J. Rooney / St. Thomas More Award

October 25, 2012

CHICAGO, IL – Loyola University School of Law has awarded Tom H. Luetkemeyer, a Chicago-based partner in the Labor & Employment Practice of Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP, its Francis J. Rooney / St. Thomas More Award. The award is given annually to an alumnus for his or her continuous and outstanding loyalty and dedicated service to the school. Mr. Luetkemeyer was honored at an alumni awards luncheon on October 23, 2012.

Mr. Luetkemeyer received his B.A. and B.S., magna cum laude, from Loyola University Chicago in 1979, and his J.D. from Loyola University School of Law in 1982. He is a longtime Adjunct Professor at the law school, and teaches labor law, employment law and employment discrimination. Mr. Luetkemeyer has also coached a moot court team at the law school for many years, and his teams have won three national championships over the course of the past nine years.

Mr. Luetkemeyer represents employers around the country in the full range of labor and employment matters. This includes work before federal administrative agencies and representation in union-related concerns. He also regularly represents hospitals, group practices and individual physicians in general corporate matters and frequently appears before a variety of Illinois administrative agencies on behalf of these clients.

Attorneys

Tom H. Luetkemeyer

Service Areas

Labor & Employment