

News

Law360 Article Highlights Suit Filed by Larry Golub Seeking to Show No Coverage for Email Hacking Claim

August 9, 2016

Larry Golub was mentioned in the article, "Insurer Says Being Duped By Email Hack Not Covered," published by Law360 on August 9, 2016.

The article discusses that Maxum Indemnity Company filed a complaint for declaratory relief in federal court on August 8, 2016 and alleged that it is not liable for costs related to a claim involving a hacked email account brought by a real estate firm against its escrow company because the policy excludes coverage for claims arising out of misappropriation or conversion of funds. Maxum is represented by Mr. Golub.

Read the full article, "Insurer Says Being Duped By Email Hack Not Covered," on the Law360 website. Please note a subscription is required.