

Newsletters

Consumer Law Hinsights - December 2019

December 12, 2019

Consumer Law Hinsights is a monthly compilation of nationwide consumer protection cases of interest to financial services and accounts receivable management companies, brought to you by Hinshaw & Culbertson LLP.

>>Download a printable version of the newsletter

You can also expand each of the topics below to read our full analysis of the cases covered in this edition.

SCOTUS Holds Discovery Rule Does not Apply to FDCPA Claims

Seventh Circuit Explains 1099C Notice can be Misleading under the FDCPA

Reporting Monthly Payments on a Charged off Debt Does not Violate the FCRA

Multiple Addresses in Initial Letter do not Violate the FDCPA's Initial Disclosure Requirements

Attorneys

Justin M. Penn

Service Areas

Consumer Financial Services