McV PRO BONO NEWS

Attorneys Antonio Escudero Viera and Lillian Toro Mojica will be the featured speakers on June 29, 2015 before a group of nonprofit organizations that receive grants from the Fundación Angel Ramos—one of Puerto Rico's largest grant-making private foundations.

Mr. Escudero Viera will provide guidance on corporate governance principles applicable to nonprofit organizations. Ms. Toro will discuss the basic rules for charitable organizations on how to obtain and maintain their federal tax exemption.

These talks are part of an ongoing partnership among the McConnell Valdés Pro Bono Program, Fundación Angel Ramos and Asesores Financieros Comunitarios to promote and support not-for-profits in their capacity building efforts.

The participating nonprofit organizations also have the opportunity to request pro bono legal assistance from the McConnell Valdés Pro Bono Program, established by the firm in 2006.
