María Domínguez joins McV as Litigation Counsel

Prior to joining the Firm, Mrs. Domínguez served as the First Assistant U.S. Attorney in the U.S. Attorney's Office in San Juan, where she held several supervisory level positions during the past twenty years. She previously worked as an Assistant U.S. Attorney in the U.S. Attorney's Office in Miami for six years and as a state prosecutor in Miami under the leadership of former U.S. Secretary of Justice, Janet Reno.

During her tenure as First Assistant U.S. Attorney in San Juan, she prosecuted the most complex and high profile white collar and violent crimes cases, where she achieved an impressive conviction record. She has taught Federal Jurisdiction at the UPR Law School, and currently teaches Advanced Criminal Law (White Collar Crime) and federal litigation at the Inter American University Law School.

Mrs. Domínguez will lead the Litigation Group's White Collar Crime Practice Team, applying her extensive and stellar experience in advising and defending clients in criminal and regulatory investigations, enforcements, and prosecutions.
