- Civil Law Notary

Her main area of practice includes general corporate matters and real estate law.

While in law school, she served as a student attorney for the Community Development Legal Aid Clinic where she focused on assisting in legal proceedings to secure housing for residents of Villa Batata, Loiza. Additionally, she participated in the development of nonprofit community organizations. She was also a member of the Pro bono Practice Trata y Tráfico Humano, whose purpose is to educate local communities, as well as students, about exploitation and modern slavery.

Ms. Rodríguez-Evans served as an interpreter for the Clinic for Asylum, Refugee & Emigrant Services (CARES) of the Villanova University Charles Widger School of Law as a translator and cultural broker between clients and student lawyers. The same year she worked for the Rt Hon Thomas Brake, MP in the House of Commons of the United Kingdom. Her prior work experience also includes internships at the Office of the Secretary of State of the Puerto Rico State Department and the Department of Economic Development and Commerce (DDEC) where she worked with Act 60-2019 Grantees.

In 2020 and 2021 Ms. Rodríguez-Evans worked at McV as a Summer Associate.
