Mr. Miranda specializes in commercial law, real estate and general corporate law. He has been involved in the structuring, financing and development of complex residential, tourism and mixed use real estate developments as well as in the development, financing and construction of most major hotels in Puerto Rico. Likewise he has an extensive practice in corporate and commercial finance matters.

He also represents the principal advertising and public relations companies in Puerto Rico as well as various healthcare organizations.

Mr. Miranda is ranked as a Senior Statesman in the Real Estate field in Puerto Rico by the renowned international publication Chambers & Partners in its Latin America Guide and is also ranked in the Real Estate Law and the Corporate and M&A fields by The Best Lawyers in Puerto Rico guide. In 2016 he was recognized by Best Lawyers® as the Real Estate "Lawyer of the Year" in San Juan, Puerto Rico.

He joined the firm as a partner in June of 1996, as a result of a merger between the firm and Ledesma, Palou & Miranda.

He is involved in various not-for-profit community organizations and foundations, including the Patronato Parroquia Stella Maris and the Fundación Sila Calderón.
