The Urban Land Institute's 2017 Caribbean Hospitality Forum, the Caribbean's premier hotel investment and development conference, will take place October 1st to the 3rd at the Puerto Rico Convention Center. McConnell Valdés and McConnell Valdés Consulting together with the Puerto Rico Builders Association and the Urban Land Institute are hosting the event.

This dynamic two-day forum features a host of informative sessions - on everything from hotel and resort development to interviews with prominent government officials — that explore top trends and opportunities in the Caribbean region's hospitality markets.

The 2017 Caribbean Hospitality Forum is ideal for those seeking investment opportunities for new tourism projects and networking with leading investors and hospitality industry professionals. This includes developers, bankers, investment fund managers, private equity groups, hotel chain executives, architects, land planners, designers, franchise and operation companies.
