Isis Carballo-Irigoyen, Co-Chair of the Tax Practice Group to participate as panelist at the 2nd Annual Women of ALPFA Dinner, a diverse panel of female executives and entrepreneurs who will answer questions about a range of topics relating to their career success stories, how they "leaned in" and their path to leadership. Women of ALPFA is an initiative focused on empowering Latinas and women to reach their full potential. The program aims to provide a leading network for Latinas (professionals and students) to connect, learn, and share experiences that lead to personal and professional growth in the workplace and their communities.
