An McV Government Affairs and Tax Alert

March 8, 2017

On March 7, 2017, the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority (the “FAFAA”) published Administrative Order 2017-01 (“AO-2017-01”) which, among other matters, limits the authority of the Government of Puerto Rico to issue new tax credits and suspends new obligations over multi-annual special appropriations prior to fiscal year 2017. AO-2017-01 creates a committee to evaluate tax credits and multi-annual special appropriations as set forth below.

As stated in the administrative order, AO-2017-01 was enacted as a fiscal measure pursuant to Act 2-2017 (the Puerto Rico Fiscal Agency and Financial Advisory Authority Act) and Act 5-2017 (the Puerto Rico Financial Emergency and Fiscal Responsibility Act). Both statutes grant the FAFAA and the Governor of Puerto Rico the authority to take certain administrative actions over portions of the Government’s Budget as well as on contracts that affect the Government’s ability to comply with the approved Fiscal Plan.
