An McV Litigation Alert

April 1, 2020

On March 31, 2020 the U.S. District Court issued an Order continuing civil and criminal proceedings. In summary, the Order states that:

- All civil and criminal proceedings requiring hearings are continued until Monday May 4, 2020
- Criminal matters before Magistrate Judges will be conducted as provided in existing COVID-19 orders
- During the pendency of this order, District and Magistrate judges may order counsel to file motions providing updates on status of cases
- Judges may continue to issue case management, dispositive, and non dispositive orders
- This order does not otherwise further extend motion deadlines extended by the Court to include up and until April 10, 2020
