

Direct Representation of Municipalities

Plunkett Cooney provides direct representation to numerous municipalities throughout the State of Michigan. Our attorneys consult with municipalities on a daily basis. These include issues that arise daily and those they might only come up once in a generation. Regardless of the complexity or novelty of the issue, Plunkett Cooney has the expertise to provide the correct answer and advice.

Plunkett Cooney attorneys represent municipalities every day in criminal prosecutions and ordinance enforcement, acting as the prosecuting attorney for the city, village or township. Our attorneys attend regular council and board meetings to provide advice on procedural matters and substantive legal issues.

Plunkett Cooney attorneys have the experience and expertise to assist municipal clients in meeting their legal obligations and in avoiding mistakes that could result in costly litigation. The firm takes pride on being the leader in municipal law in the State of Michigan and in providing its expertise to assist its municipal clients in meeting the needs of their citizens.
