Hilary A. Ballentine is a member of the firm's Appellate Law Practice Group who concentrates her practice primarily on appeals related to litigation involving general liability, municipal liability, construction claims, constitutional and medical liability cases, among others. She also provides trial support with an emphasis on motions in limine, jury instructions and post-trial motions.

Ms. Ballentine is admitted to practice in Michigan's state and federal courts, as well as the Michigan Court of Appeals, the Michigan Supreme Court, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit and the U.S. Supreme Court. With nearly 40 published decisions, she has successfully briefed and argued cases before the Michigan Court of Appeals, the Michigan Supreme Court and the Sixth Circuit.

Ms. Ballentine, who is a member of the firm's Bloomfield Hills office, has been selected as a "Rising Star" in appellate law by Michigan Super Lawyers magazine since 2011. She was also selected as an "Up and Coming" lawyer by Michigan Lawyer's Weekly in 2011.

A Past President of the Michigan Defense Trial Counsel's (MDTC) and former chair of its Sponsorship Committee, Ms. Ballentine was named as MDTC's Volunteer of the Year in 2012. She is also an active member of the Michigan Appellate Bench Bar Planning Committee and the DRI – The Voice of the Defense Bar.
