

Practice Areas

Torts & Litigation

Education

- American Institute for Paralegal Studies, Paralegal Certificate, 1997

A member of the Plunkett Cooney's Bloomfield Hills office, Rebecca C. Opipari works as a litigation support specialist, providing technical assistance to all practice groups.

Ms. Opipari assists attorneys and paralegals preparing for trial by managing document intensive files, assisting with document productions and displaying exhibits in court. She has experience using litigation support software, including Relativity, Summation and Trial Director.

A graduate of the American Institute for Paralegal Studies in 1997, Ms. Opipari joined Plunkett Cooney's Business Litigation Section as a paralegal in 1998 where she focused her practice on labor and employment law, commercial litigation and health care law. She also assisted Plunkett Cooney attorneys with trials in federal and state court.