

Plunkett Cooney receives eighth consecutive top company honor

October 15, 2012

For the eighth consecutive year, the Michigan Business & Professional Association (MBPA) has named Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and largest law firms, as one of "Metropolitan Detroit's 101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For."

"Our entire management team is excited to win this honor again," said Henry B. Cooney, the firm's President and CEO. "Plunkett Cooney is a great place to work because of our people. As a management team, we simply tap into their spirit and find new ways to keep our firm evolving."

The MBPA honored the 101 Best and Brightest companies its a human resources symposium and awards luncheon on Thursday, Sept. 27 at the Henry Hotel located at 300 Town Center Drive in Dearborn. The "101 Best and Brightest Companies to Work For" honor is presented annually in several markets, including Detroit, Chicago, Atlanta and Houston, as well as nationally.

An independent research firm evaluates each company's entry based on key measures in various categories. They include compensation, benefits and employee solutions; employee enrichment, engagement and retention; employee education and development; recruitment, selection and orientation; employee achievement and recognition; communication and shared vision; diversity and inclusion; work-life balance; community initiatives and strategic company performance.
