Attorney Mark S. Kopson, who serves as the Healthcare Industry Group Leader of Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and largest law firms, has been reappointed to a one-year term as Chair of the Payers, Plans and Managed Care (PPMC) Practice Group of the American Health Lawyers Association (AHLA).

The AHLA is the nation's largest nonpartisan educational organization devoted to legal issues in the healthcare field. The association's 12,500 members practice in a variety of healthcare settings. The PPMC Practice Group addresses legal issues concerning health plans, insurers and managed care providers, including provider and government contracting, plan operations and management, litigation, and compliance. PPMC provides education materials and leading-edge content to members from virtually every major US health plan and many of the nation's largest provider organizations, and has achieved record membership under Kopson's leadership.

As PPMC Chair, Kopson's responsibilities include overseeing all PPMC activities, five vice-chairs and three Affinity Groups; collaborating with other practice group leaders; and serving as liaison between PPMC and the AHLA board of directors.

A shareholder in Plunkett Cooney's Bloomfield Hills office and a member of its board of directors, Kopson represents healthcare providers and integrated delivery systems, public and private payers and other managed care entities in Michigan and throughout the United States. He has extensive experience and expertise in the areas of managed care negotiation, contracting and dispute resolution, performance/outcomes-based reimbursement and revenue cycle, and as well as regulatory compliance and agency investigation response. His practice also includes the formation and counseling of integrated delivery networks, certificates of need and regulatory issues related to for-profit acquisitions of non-profit providers.

KOPSON REAPPOINTED PRACTICE GROUP CHAIR OF NATIONAL HEALTHCARE LAW ORGANIZATION

Kopson is a Life Member of the AHLA having previously served six years as a Vice-Chair of PPMC and one year as Chair of its Managed Care Contracting Affinity Group, as well as two years on the AHLA Board Mentoring Committee. He is the Chair-Elect of the Health Care Law Section, and member of the Business Law Section of the State Bar of Michigan; as well as the Business Law, Health Law, and Law Practice Management sections of the American Bar Association.

A magna cum laude graduate of the University of Detroit School of Law in 1985, Kopson received his undergraduate degree, summa cum laude, from the University of Detroit in 1981. He has received Martindale-Hubbell's highest rating-AV and has been elected for inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America®, Michigan Super Lawyers® and Top Lawyers® for healthcare law. (AV is a registered certification mark of Reed Elsevier Properties, Inc., used in accordance with Martindale-Hubbell certification procedures, standards and policies.).

Plunkett Cooney's Healthcare Industry Group was formed to meet the unique needs of clients in the increasingly complex business of healthcare. Using a multi-specialty approach, Plunkett Cooney attorneys solve and prevent problems for all types of healthcare providers, payers and health-related businesses.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney employs more than 150 attorneys in nine Michigan cities, Columbus, Ohio and Indianapolis, Indiana. The firm has achieved the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading, international directory of law firms.
