Associate attorney Cloie Y. Chidiac recently joined Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and largest full-service law firms, as a member of the Torts & Litigation Practice Group.

Chidiac represents commercial clients directly and through their insurance providers. Her diverse litigation practice includes such areas as general liability, insurance law, employment liability, premises liability, family law, commercial litigation and motor vehicle liability.

A member of the State Bar of Michigan, Chidiac received her law degree from Wayne State University Law School in 2022. While there, she worked as a research assistant for Wayne Law professor. Chidiac received her undergraduate degree, cum laude, from Oakland University in 2020.

Plunkett Cooney's Torts & Litigation Practice Group features the collective talents of attorneys who focus their practices on the defense of all manner of civil litigation, including claims involving foodservice and hospitality, motor vehicle negligence, liquor liability, product liability, retail liability, toxic torts and premises liability, including slip, trip and falls resulting in serious injury or even death.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois, Indianapolis, Indiana and Columbus, Ohio.

Plunkett Cooney has achieved the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading peer review service, and has received Mansfield Rule Certification for midsize law firms, which recognizes leaders in diversity, equity and inclusion within the legal industry.
