Senior attorney Simone R. Fabiilli recently joined the Torts & Litigation and Commercial Litigation practice groups of Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished full-service law firms.

Fabiilli is an experienced litigator who defends insurance-related matters involving premises liability, general negligence, real estate professional liability, employment liability, and first- and third-party auto accident claims. She also has experience handling contractual and other business disputes.

Admitted to practice in state and federal courts in Michigan, Fabiilli is a member of the State Bar of Michigan, and she serves as the Executive Board Vice President of the Italian American Bar Association of Michigan. Fabiilli is a 2016 graduate of the Michigan State University College of Law where she served as managing editor of the Michigan State International Law Review. She received her undergraduate degree, magna cum laude, from Wayne State University in 2013.

The members of Plunkett Cooney's Torts and Litigation Practice Group focus on the defense of all manner of civil litigation, including construction disputes, motor vehicle negligence, liquor liability, product liability, toxic torts and premises liability, including slip, trip and falls. The firm's clients include the policyholders of some of the world's largest insurance providers and other businesses that become the targets of litigation.

The members of Plunkett Cooney's Commercial Litigation Practice Group represent a range of clients in litigation, arbitration and other forms of alternative dispute resolution concerning matters that arise while conducting business. Group members have extensive experience in matters involving contract disputes, class action defense, business torts, real estate disputes, business ownership conflicts, bankruptcy, antitrust claims and many others.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana.
