Associate attorney Regan Glenn recently joined Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished law firms, as a member of its Torts & Litigation and Governmental Law practice groups.

Glenn represents a variety of clients directly and through their insurance providers. Her litigation practice includes such areas as premises liability, municipal law, motor vehicle litigation and general liability, including pet and construction liability.

A member of the State Bar of Michigan, Glenn received her undergraduate, master's and law degrees from the University of Detroit in 2020, 2021 and 2024, respectively. She earned academic and athletic accolades throughout her college career, including scholarships and book awards for international trade and NAFTA and litigation technology.

Plunkett Cooney's Torts & Litigation Practice Group features the collective talents of attorneys who focus their practices on the defense of all manner of civil litigation, including claims involving foodservice and hospitality, motor vehicle negligence, liquor liability, product liability, retail liability, toxic torts and premises liability, including slip, trip and falls resulting in serious injury or even death.

Members of Plunkett Cooney's Governmental Law Practice Group handle virtually every issue that can be brought against municipalities and municipal officials. These matters range from sewer overflows to police misconduct and excessive force cases to alleged First Amendment violations and falls on public sidewalks.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana.

Plunkett Cooney has achieved the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading, international directory of law firms. The firm has also received Mansfield Rule Certification Plus for midsize law firms, which recognizes leaders in diversity, equity and inclusion within the legal industry.
