Attorney Kaleb I. Hobgood recently joined the Torts and Litigation Practice Group of Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished full-service law firms.

A member of Plunkett Cooney's Indianapolis office, Hobgood focuses his practice on insurance defense litigation involving product liability, premises liability and motor vehicle claims. He has experience representing insurers, businesses and individuals in a variety of civil defense matters, including bodily injury and property damage disputes. In addition, he has handled attorney malpractice claims.

Admitted to practice in the state and federal courts in Indiana, Hobgood is a 2022 graduate from Indiana University Robert H. McKinney School of Law where he distinguished himself as a top 10 oral advocate in the school's moot court competition. He graduated from Wabash College in 2019. Hobgood is a member of the Indiana State and Indianapolis Bar associations.

The members of Plunkett Cooney's Torts and Litigation Practice Group focus on the defense of all manner of civil litigation, including construction disputes, motor vehicle negligence, liquor liability, product liability, toxic torts and premises liability, including slip, trip and falls, as well as open and obvious dangers. The firm's clients include the policyholders of some of the world's largest insurance providers and other businesses that become the target of litigation.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana. Plunkett Cooney has received the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, a leading peer review service, and Mansfield Rule Certification Plus for midsize law firms, which recognizes leaders in diversity, equity and inclusion within the legal industry.
