Attorney Kelsey M. Hall recently joined Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and most accomplished law firms, as a member of its Torts & Litigation and Transportation Law practice groups.

A member of the firm's Bloomfield Hills office, Hall maintains a diverse litigation defense practice that includes premises liability, transportation liability and general negligence claims.

Hall represents insurance carriers and their policyholders in slip, trip and fall claims, first- and third-party auto negligence litigation, uninsured and underinsured motorist claims, special investigations fraud, subrogation and disputes involving breach of contract, general negligence, premises liability and exposure to asbestos.

A member of the State Bar of Michigan and Oakland County Bar Association, Hall graduated from the University of Iowa College of Law in 2023. She earned her undergraduate degree from Eastern Michigan University in 2020. While there, Hall was a National Champion of the 2020 American Moot Court Nationals, and she currently coaches the University of Michigan Moot Court for undergraduates.

Plunkett Cooney's Torts & Litigation Practice Group features the collective talents of attorneys who focus their practices on the defense of all manner of civil litigation, including claims involving foodservice and hospitality, motor vehicle negligence, liquor liability, product liability, retail liability, toxic torts, and premises liability, including slip, trip and falls resulting in serious injury or even death.

Plunkett Cooney's Transportation Law Practice Group includes a team of highly skilled attorneys, each providing specific expertise in this multi-faceted area of practice. These attorneys have successfully handled matters involving catastrophic personal injury accidents, property damage litigation, Michigan No Fault Act claims, contractual dispute resolution, insurance coverage disputes, regulatory compliance and transactional work.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of business law and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs attorneys in seven Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois; Columbus, Ohio; and Indianapolis, Indiana. Plunkett Cooney has achieved the highest rating
