Plunkett Cooney, one of the Midwest's oldest and largest law firms, recently named Mitchell McIntyre as its newest shareholder.

McIntyre was unanimously approved by the firm's Board of Directors as the firm's newest shareholder. The promotion from associate attorney is based on the recommendations of the firm's Shareholder Evaluation Committee and is effective January 1, 2019.

McIntyre is a member of the firm's Transportation Law Practice Group. He has extensive experience with insurance coverage, no-fault and high exposure transportation litigation and also specializes in transportation network claims and ride-sharing. McIntyre represents some of the largest carriers and rental car corporations in the country and acts as Michigan panel counsel for one of the premier network transportation companies.

A member of the firm's Detroit office, McIntyre graduated, cum laude, from Wayne State University Law School in 2012 where he received both the Silver and Bronze Key Academic Awards. He received his undergraduate degree from Central Michigan University in 2008.

Established in 1913, Plunkett Cooney is a leading provider of transactional and litigation services to clients in the private and public sectors. The firm employs approximately 150 attorneys in eight Michigan cities, Chicago, Illinois, Columbus, Ohio and Indianapolis, Indiana. Plunkett Cooney has achieved the highest rating (AV) awarded by Martindale-Hubbell, another leading, international directory of law firms. The firm was also recently selected by Crain's Detroit Business as its inaugural Law Firm of the Year winner.
