

GAMING & SPORTS

RCCB is effectively positioned to meet the evolving needs of our gaming and sports industry clients. We counsel various stakeholders, including owners and operators of casinos, online/mobile operators, gaming equipment and software manufacturers, key employees, financial institutions, and vendors offering goods and services to casinos and online operators.

Furthermore, as the gaming landscape continues to evolve, characterized by the rise of internet and mobile gaming and the expansion of sports wagering, our services extend to technology providers, sports wagering operators, professional and collegiate sports organizations, fantasy sports and skill gaming platforms, and multimedia companies seeking partnerships and collaborations within this dynamic industry, as well as international companies looking to enter the U.S. market.

With our comprehensive approach and deep industry knowledge, we are dedicated to delivering strategic guidance and advocacy to our clients. Our aim is to ensure they are well-equipped to navigate the business and regulatory complexities of the gaming sector and seize emerging opportunities. This practice intersects with the firm's vast experience counseling private equity funds, lenders, real estate developers, and others to assist these clients with issues and opportunities pertaining to the gaming and sports industries.

Areas of Focus:

- Commercial partnerships in the online sports wagering and gaming space, including market access agreements, licensing deals, and agreements between gaming entities and sports organizations.
