REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Mergers & Acquisitions

■

Represented a cloud-based financial data and intelligence platform during its recapitalization and strategic sale of a minority stake to a leading global financial institution. This complex transaction, which involved various domestic and international components, ensured our client retained control of the business, had long-term commercial agreements in place, and was sufficiently protected in its new chapter with a strategic minority owner.

■

Represented a national private-equity backed logistics company in its acquisition of multiple transportation and logistics companies across the United States.

Commercial Contracts

■

Provides ongoing counseling to a multi-billion dollar international electronic parts manufacturer concerning commercial contracting and corporate governance, including the drafting and negotiating supply and customer agreements, vendor agreements, and high-volume NDAs.

■

Represents clients across various industries — including software, cloud-based solutions, manufacturing, HVAC, life sciences, food and beverage, technology, data, e-commerce, hospitality, marketing, and transportation — in navigating, drafting and negotiating complex commercial agreements.

■

Represents a software and digital engineering business consulting services company in managing its global commercial contracting needs, including drafting and negotiating MSAs and related customer agreements.

General Corporate / Corporate Governance

- Guides clients across various industries through their corporate lifecycle, from formation to dissolution. This includes drafting essential organizational documents such as articles of incorporation, certificates of organization, bylaws, operating agreements, shareholders' agreements, consents, and other foundational documents.

■

Acts as 'outside general counsel' for closely held businesses, advising on various commercial and corporate matters.

■

Represents a manufacturer of packaging and corrugated materials in its day-to-day corporate needs, including governance and contract review.
