

BIOGRAPHY

Chris Yaracs focuses his practice on business and commercial transactions, debt and equity financings, licensing and technology transactions, and corporate and business counseling. He has worked with multinational financial institutions, regional and national banks, private equity funds and private lenders, privately-owned companies, and real estate developers and investors.

Client Experience

- Multinational financial institutions
- Community, regional and national banks
- Private equity funds and private lenders
- Privately-owned companies at all stages of maturity
- Real estate developers and investors

COMMUNITY & PROFESSIONAL

Historic Preservation & Education Fund of The Racquet Club of Philadelphia, Inc., Chair

Risk Management Association, Philadelphia Chapter, Young Professionals Committee

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

 RCCB acted as local U.S. counsel on behalf of an Israeli private equity fund, an Israeli technology solutions company, and a group of minority shareholders in the sale of all the stock of a leading international provider of turnkey parking site solutions to an Italian

HONORS

Pennsylvania Super Lawyers Rising Stars, 2023

- Corporate & Business
- Best Lawyers Ones to Watch, 2024
- Mergers and Acquisitions Law

EDUCATION

J.D., cum laude, Temple University Beasley School of Law, 2015

- Temple Law Review, staff member
- Moot Court Honor Society, executive board member

B.A., With High Distinction, Phi Beta Kappa, The Pennsylvania State University, 2012

ADMISSIONS

Pennsylvania

New Jersey

multinational leader in the automation and vehicle and pedestrian access control sector for approximately $135 million. The client had two wholly-owned U.S. subsidiaries and generated a majority of its revenue within the U.S., RCCB provided counsel with respect to the U.S. aspects of the Stock Purchase Agreement, Hart-Scott-Rodino analysis, corporate governance, transaction diligence, and related transactional matters.

- Represented a local community bank in connection with various business loans totaling over $9.8 million and secured by commercial and residential real estate.
- Represented a private equity fund in connection with its control investment in a motorcycle leasing company, which investment involved multi-tranche preferred equity investments and senior and mezzanine credit facilities providing up to $100 million in the aggregate.
- Represented a strategic buyer in connection with its acquisition of a technology and communications solutions provider for approximately $11+ million, plus additional cash and stock earn-out consideration.
- Represented a commercial bank in connection with the addition of a $5 million mezzanine loan facility from a subordinate lender behind the bank's existing $8.6 million senior loan facility, for the purposes of redeveloping a historic building in Philadelphia.
- Represented a software provider and its founder in connection with the sale of the company to a strategic buyer for more than $7 million, plus additional cash earn-out consideration.

PRACTICE FOCUS

- Debt & Equity Financings
- Business & Commercial Transactions
- Licensing & Technology Transactions
- Business & Corporate Counseling

INDUSTRIES

- Financial services
- Emerging companies
- Private equity & venture capital
- Technology
- Real estate

NEWS

Twenty-three RCCB Attorneys Recognized in 2024 Edition of the Best Lawyers in America Firm News, Best Lawyers, August 17, 2023

ROYER COOPER COHEN BRAUNFELD (RCCB) ANNOUNCES FOURTEEN 2023 PENNSYLVANIA SUPER LAWYERS® AND RISING STARS®
Firm News, Super Lawyers, June 5, 2023

PUBLICATIONS

New Year, New Reporting Requirements: What the Corporate Transparency Act Means for Your Business Publication, RCCB Client Alert, December 20, 2023