

TREVOR J. LAHOZ

ASSOCIATE

Conshohocken
tlahoz@rccbllaw.com
office: 484.532.8188

BIOGRAPHY

Trevor J. Lahoz is a member of the Corporate & Business practice who focuses on mergers and acquisitions, debt and equity financings, corporate governance and commercial transactions. He has experience advising clients on both public and private transactions and in a variety of industries, including technology, renewable energy, healthcare and life sciences.

CLIENT EXPERIENCE

- Private equity transactions
- Public company mergers
- Acquisition financing

COMMUNITY & PROFESSIONAL

Legal Aid Foundation of Los Angeles, Volunteer

Los Angeles Teen Court, Volunteer

San Diego Refugee Tutoring, Volunteer Tutor

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

RCCB represented IT consultancy, Enable Consulting, in the sale of 100% of its membership interests to Prolifics, a global digital engineering leader. This strategic partnership will empower Prolifics to enrich and accelerate its various client offerings, including those in Salesforce engineering and AI-powered analytics (among others), while offering customized, innovative and growth-oriented solutions.

EDUCATION

J.D., UCLA School of Law, 2021

- Asian Pacific Islander Law Student Association, Member

B.S., San Diego State University,
Fowler College of Business
Administration, Finance, magna cum laude, 2017

- Toastmasters Best-of-the-Best Award
Sigma Phi Epsilon, President

ADMISSIONS

New York

PRACTICE FOCUS

- Mergers & Acquisitions
- Business & Commercial Transactions
- Debt & Equity Financing

INDUSTRIES

- Private Equity
- Energy
- Healthcare
- Life Sciences
- Technology