

BARRY COHEN APPOINTED CHAIR OF THE ABA-IPL TRADEMARK LEGISLATION COMMITTEE

FIRM NEWS, JANUARY 10, 2023

Barry Cohen has been appointed Chair of the Trademark Legislation Committee of the Intellectual Property Law Section of the American Bar Association (ABA-IPL) for the 2022-2023 bar year.

As part of the ABA and one of largest organizations of intellectual property professionals in the world, the Intellectual Property Law Section is a highly respected and influential voice of the IP bar. Its leaders provide thoughtful consideration of emerging issues that shape and influence the views and policies advocated by the Section, encourage the development of relevant and timely programming and publications dedicated to those issues, and are the first face of recruitment and retention of members of the Section. The Section's committees serve as welcoming places for the nation's intellectual property lawyers and law students to develop collegial relationships and to benefit from one another's experience.
