John E. Royer, Jr. Named to Philadelphia Business Journal's Best of the Bar

Royer Cooper Cohen Braunfeld LLC's Managing Partner Selected as a 2019 Honoree in the Corporate Category

Royer Cooper Cohen Braunfeld LLC (RCCB), a law firm offering a distinctive combination of practical business acumen, legal expertise and entrepreneurial passion, is pleased to announce that Managing Partner John E. Royer, Jr. has been selected to the 2019 Philadelphia Business Journal's Best of the Bar: Philadelphia's Top Lawyers. The newspaper selected attorneys who have distinguished themselves in their practice specialties throughout the past year.

The 41 honorees were chosen from among the hundreds of nominees in the Philadelphia area by the Business Journal's editorial board and three independent judges. Attorney nominations were evaluated based on significant and recent achievements, including the legal significance, the size of the results and the business impact of the work.

Royer was recognized for his work in the corporate category. He brings more than 30 years of business and corporate law experience to his clients, for whom he frequently serves as outside general counsel. He focuses his practice primarily on business and corporate law transactions and counseling for emerging growth technology and life science companies, executives and investors, as well as middle market and family-owned businesses.

His practice encompasses mergers and acquisitions, corporate restructurings, private equity and venture capital transactions, debt and equity offerings, licensing and technology contracting, fund formation and partnership and limited liability company operating agreements, as well as a wide range of business and commercial transactions, agreements and general business legal counseling.

"We are thrilled by John's inclusion in the 2019 Best of the Bar list," said Executive Partner Neil Cooper. "John's colleagues, clients and peers have long relied on John for his guidance and look to him for thoughtful and sophisticated advice. This honor is certainly well earned and reflective of numerous accomplishments over the years," Cooper continued.
