

RCCB'S INTELLECTUAL PROPERTY GROUP RECOGNIZED IN 2025 WTR 1000 RANKINGS

ACCOLADES, WORLD TRADEMARK REVIEW, FEBRUARY 3, 2025

Royer Cooper Cohen Braunfeld LLP (RCCB) has once again earned recognition in the prestigious World Trademark Review 1000 (WTR 1000) rankings, highlighting the firm's exceptional intellectual property practice. Known for their collaborative and agile approach to IP issues, RCCB's "small but mighty" team continues to stand out in the field.

Senior Counsel Nancy Frandsen has been awarded Gold rankings in both Individuals: Prosecution and Strategy and Individuals: Enforcement and Litigation. Revered for her "tremendous strength" and deep expertise in trademark law, Frandsen manages prosecution and enforcement for several multinational clients. She is widely respected by peers for her strategic insight and unwavering dedication to her clients' brand protection.

Donna A. Tobin has earned a Silver ranking in Individuals: Enforcement and Litigation, further solidifying RCCB's reputation for excellence in intellectual property law. Donna has provided large and small clients in various industries, including the health and wellness, financial services, and food and beverage industries, with trademark litigation, prosecution, and counseling services for over thirty-five years.

Partner Barry Cohen has been recognized with a Silver ranking in Individuals: Enforcement and Litigation. A well-rounded litigator, Cohen brings extensive experience in commercial contract, trademark, trade secret, and copyright matters, allowing him to tailor his litigation strategies to best serve his clients' business needs. His ability to quickly assess and adapt to complex IP disputes makes him an invaluable advocate in the field.

RCCB congratulates Nancy, Barry, and Donna on their well-deserved recognition in the 2025 WTR 1000, underscoring the firm's commitment to providing top-tier IP services.
