

CALIFORNIA GOVERNOR SIGNS CCPA AMENDMENTS AHEAD OF 2020 EFFECTIVE DATE

PUBLICATION, MCNEESLAW.COM - CHASE J. WRIGHT, OCTOBER 15, 2019

Last week, the nearly yearlong process of amending the California Consumer Privacy Act of 2018 (CCPA) was finalized. The amendments to the CCPA were previously approved by California legislators, and, on Friday, the changes were signed into law by Governor Gavin Newsom. The bills amend the CCPA and become part of the law, which takes effect on January 1, 2020. Read the full article here.
