

Jory Tremblay - Biography Highlights

Highlights

Jory is an internationally seasoned operating, sales and marketing executive. Having worked successfully in both the corporate world and the technology start up space, as an investor, entrepreneur, and advisor to management and boards alike. He is currently leading the effort to bring Babylon to the US market and change access and affordability.

He has held a number of roles including 23+ years at Automatic Data Processing (ADP), spearheading the entry to market of ADP's health and welfare and HR products and services. In 2006 he invested in, and took a leadership role as SVP at Fetch Technologies. During his time at Fetch, he led business strategy, sales, marketing, commercial product development, technology, and data services. Beyond the above, Jory was contracted to build one of the first ACOs in the US, co-managed EspressoSat, co-founded Provence Capital, and sits on the board of several private companies.

He is currently a 17 year board member of Board of UCP of Los Angeles, Santa Barbara & Ventura Counties for 17 years, including the Executive Committee, Treasurer and Secretary, the Board of UCP Wheels for Humanity. He is a founding member of The REEL Project a Congo based NGO and Rock the Elephant focused on raising awareness and funding to support anti-poaching.

He received a bachelor's degree from the University of Pittsburgh in political science.

He likes to cook, travel, modern art, plays squash, tennis and some days he finds golf enjoyable.