

You're invited to a networking reception

Who should attend: Women executives and lawyers who want to connect with other women in the Bay Area community.

You are cordially invited to join the women of Sheppard Mullin for this exclusive look inside one of San Francisco's landmark homes.

Women's Networking Reception & Historic Home Tour

Thursday, October 18, 2007 🚗 5:00 - 7:30 p.m.

Cocktail reception and docent-led tours featuring period American decorative arts

RSVP by October 15 via email to:
kmihalaros@sheppardmullin.com
Valet Parking Available

294 Page Street 🚗 Dietle House 🚗 San Francisco

This grand Victorian residence in the heart of Hayes Valley is a registered landmark. Located on the corner of Page and Laguna Streets, the classic "stick" architecture was designed and built by Henry Geilfuss for Charles Dietle in 1885. Docent-led tours will showcase the restored facade, living and dining areas, and panoramic views of city lights.

Hosted by Sheppard Mullin

SHEPPARD MULLIN

SHEPPARD MULLIN RICHTER & HAMPTON LLP

A T T O R N E Y S A T L A W

