Sheppard Mullin's interdisciplinary Japan team offers globally-oriented Japanese companies all the resources of a large international law firm to help clients navigate United States and European legal questions. The team also collaborates with recognized Japanese law firms on global deals, investigation and litigation matters.

Several of our Japan team members are fluent or conversant in Japanese and have decades long experience in advising Japanese companies. Our Japan team represents a cross-section of the firm's practice and industry teams including antitrust, privacy, IP, communications, corporate, entertainment, finance, bankruptcy, international trade, litigation and real estate.

We complement our core legal skills with deep familiarity of Japanese business practices and customs, allowing us to anticipate the needs of our Japanese clients and provide exceptional service. This allows our Japanese clients to focus on what they do best to run a successful business.

Please contact the Japan team members below for further details about the services we offer.
