Andrew C. Dane is an associate in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's San Diego office.

Areas of Practice

Andrew focuses his practice on complex litigation matters with an emphasis on insurance and healthcare litigation. Andrew has experience in all stages of litigation in both state and federal court, including extensive familiarity with dispositive motions practice, managing discovery in document-intensive cases, and working with expert witnesses on highly technical matters.

Prior to joining the firm, Andrew externed for the Honorable M. James Lorenz of the Southern District of California and began his career at another large law firm where his practice also included securities and environmental litigation.
