Alicia Burrell is an associate in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's Orange County office.

Areas of Practice

Alicia represents clients across a spectrum of commercial and complex litigation, focusing on business contracts, torts, and food and beverage disputes. She is committed to providing effective legal solutions that align with her clients' objectives, emphasizing strong relationships and continuous communication throughout the litigation process.

Alicia is equally dedicated to her pro bono work, volunteering at the Federal Pro Se Clinic in Santa Ana, California. Here, she offers legal guidance to individuals representing themselves in federal civil actions and brings her expertise to immigration and criminal cases.

Outside of her professional life, Alicia enjoys discovering new coffee shops.
