Carina Novell helps companies navigate complex California employment laws and defends both single-plaintiff and complex class action lawsuits.

Areas of Practice

Carina focuses her practice on labor and employment law matters, as well as advising and representing management clients. Carina handles various types of employment litigation, including wage and hour class actions, discrimination, wrongful termination, retaliation, and harassment lawsuits.

She works regularly with companies in the food and beverage industry. She also assists companies in the Healthcare and Retail space.

Carina serves as a mentor for the University of San Diego Women's Law Caucus and is actively involved in the firm's Women Lawyers Group.
