Edwin Astudillo is a partner in the Corporate Practice Group in the firm's San Diego (Del Mar) office.

Areas of Practice

Edwin's practice focuses on advising companies in SEC reporting matters, capital raising transactions, and mergers and acquisitions, including going private transactions and mergers involving public companies. He advises companies in a variety of industries including companies in the biotech, medical device, and information technology industries.

Edwin assists clients in financing their business through private placements and public offerings. He regularly counsels publicly traded companies in SEC reporting and corporate governance matters, and stock exchange and securities laws compliance. Edwin works with business owners and management on legal issues that arise in the operation of their business on a daily basis. He has represented clients in transactions ranging from the sale of a family-held business to the sale of a NYSE-listed company in a deal that was recognized by China Business Law Journal as the Going Private Deal of the Year.
