Erica Gibbons is an attorney in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's Houston office. Prior to law practice, she worked as a Paralegal and legal assistant at a litigation firm in Chicago.

Areas of Practice

Erica represents clients in a variety of complex commercial and business litigation matters in both state and federal courts as well as private arbitration settings. She has routinely represented construction owners, general contractors and design professionals in construction defect and construction delay cases. Erica has dealt with construction related litigation ranging from multi-story residential high-rise buildings, large residential apartment complexes, and large public improvement projects. She has litigated claims involving breach of contract, construction, fraud, insurance defense, managed care disputes and other business torts across several industries. She is also experienced with document review platforms used for electronic discovery (eDiscovery) and can effectively manage large document review projects for litigation matters.
