Jeffrey Crowe is a partner in the Business Trial Practice Group in the firm's Orange County office, and Co-Leader of the Insurance Team.

Areas of Practice

For over 20 years, Jeff has represented and defended insurance companies in a variety of insurance-related litigation, including against insurance bad faith, class action and unfair competition claims. He also has extensive experience litigating insurance coverage disputes and serving as counsel in complex coverage matters.

Jeff's practice includes litigating both first-party and third-party disputes under a variety of personal and commercial lines policies. He represents insurance clients in both state and federal trial and appellate courts, and has a track record of success in high stakes and complex litigation.

In coverage matters, Jeff's experience has ranged broadly from analyzing first-party coverages, including the investigation of suspected fraudulent claims, to assisting clients with the analysis of complex liability coverages, drafting coverage opinions, and writing coverage position letters.

For consecutive years, Jeff's peers have recognized him as one of the Best Lawyers in America for his work in Insurance – Litigation.

Jeff is the editor and a frequent author of the Firm's Insurance Law Blog, and has been a contributing editor of the Rutter Group's California Practice Guide: Insurance Litigation. He is also actively involved in pro bono and volunteer work, including as a United Way e-Mentor for the Class of 2022 and 2023 e-Mentorship Program.
