

→ Marta Piñol Lindin

Legal Consultant

IT Tower
Avenue Louise 480
1050 Brussels

T: +32.2.290.7909

mpinollindin@sheppardmullin.com

Marta Piñol Lindin is a Legal Consultant in the International Trade and Investment Law practice group in the firm's Brussels office.

Areas of Practice

Marta's practice focuses on sanctions, export, import, anti-bribery, and foreign investment issues under the U.S. and EU regimes.

Marta is a member of the Barcelona bar and holds an LL.M in International Trade and Investment Law from Maastricht University. Prior to joining Sheppard Mullin, Marta completed a traineeship at the European Commission (DG Trade, unit on the Legal Aspects of Trade, Sustainable Development and Investment).

Articles

Global Trade Law Blog Posts

- "Overview of Section 232 Tariffs on Steel and Aluminum: What Importers Need to Know," April 24, 2025
- "Who is Stacking the Chips: U.S. Commerce Department Launches Section 232 Investigation into Semiconductor Imports," April 16, 2025
- "Blockading the Ports: U.S. Imposes 10% Global Tariff; Higher Reciprocal Tariff Rates by Country," April 3, 2025

Practices

Governmental

International Trade and Investment

Education

LL.M in Globalisation and Law, International Trade and Investment Law, Maastricht University, 2024

LL.M Professional Legal Practice, University of Barcelona, 2021

Degree in Law, University of Barcelona, 2019

Admissions

Spain (Barcelona Bar)

Languages

Catalan

English

Italian

Spanish