Ryan Cunningham is an associate in the Intellectual Property Practice Group in the firm's San Diego (Del Mar) and Silicon Valley offices.

Areas of Practice

Ryan handles complex patent litigation matters before U.S. district courts and the U.S. International Trade Commission (ITC). He represents clients in patent infringement actions involving technologies such as liquid crystal displays, semiconductor fabrication, wireless networking devices, core and edge network routers and microprocessor architecture. Ryan's experience covers all major aspects of patent litigation, including pre-filing investigations, fact and expert discovery, Markman hearings, summary judgment, trial, post-trial proceedings and appeals to the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit.

Ryan graduated with honors from George Washington University Law School. While attending law school, he served as an intern to the Honorable Richard Linn of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit and as a law clerk at the Office of Unfair Import Investigations of the ITC.
