Todd Rosenberg is a partner in the Corporate Practice Group in the firm's Washington, D.C. office.

Areas of Practice

Healthcare entities, including payors, providers and vendors such as pharmacy benefit managers (PBMs), look to Todd when structuring, negotiating and documenting complex transactions such as mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and other strategic commercial agreements.

Todd has one of the country's leading practices representing health plans in negotiating arrangements with PBMs. He also has represented PBMs in joint ventures and other strategic transactions with industry partners. When handling these complex transactions, Todd works closely with the firm's healthcare regulatory and privacy attorneys to offer seamless, full-service guidance to clients.

In addition to healthcare, Todd regularly advises public and private corporations and investors in a wide variety of other industries in transactional matters. He has represented clients in the financial services (including limited partners in investments in private equity funds), government contracts, transportation, media, technology and telecommunications industries.

Todd is also very active in the Washington, D.C. public service community, where he sits on the Boards of the Jewish Community Relations Council and the Charles E. Smith Jewish Day School, while also serving as President of the Washington, D.C. Chapter of Friends of the Israeli Defense Forces (FIDF).

Experience
