

Employer's Guide to SB 198 Injury and Illness Prevention Programs and the California Corporate Criminal Liability Act - 3rd Edition

10.2002

The Employer's Guide to S.B. 198 Injury and Illness Prevention Programs discusses the two safety laws from an employer's perspective. It examines the statutes and regulations and describes the obligations created by both laws. It also provides a sample personnel policy and contains sample injury and illness prevention programs. Among the subjects addressed are statutory rules, impact on OSHA, training requirements, manager's reporting duties, record-keeping rules, inspection requirements, safety committees, and other key requirements.
