

→ Judicial Clerks

Sheppard Mullin welcomes service by associates, immediately following law school graduation and bar examination and before commencement of legal practice with the firm, in clerkships with United States District Courts, United States Circuit Courts of Appeal and state supreme courts. The firm will not offer post-graduate employment to a student who has accepted a clerkship with a term that begins after the student is scheduled to start his or her practice at Sheppard Mullin.

To apply, please visit the Current Openings page for Experienced Attorneys.