

Latest Antitrust Developments: For Companies Big and Small

AmCham China Conference Center, China
05.26.2016

1:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m.

China's antitrust regime is undergoing rapid changes, with a series of draft guidelines to supplement antitrust enforcement and a draft revision of the Anti-Unfair Competition Law (AUCL). This creates challenges for businesses both large and small. Our panelists, Su Sun of Economists Inc., Brett Gerson of the U.S. Embassy, and Victor Shen of Henkel, will provide practical advice for navigating the new regulatory environment. Refer to attached document for further details on the selected topics.

Topics include the application of the Anti-Monopoly Law (AML) to intellectual property rights; readjustment of corporate compliance programs to address evolving regulatory issues; and engagement by the US government with China. Legal Committee vice-chair Becky Koblitz from Sheppard Mullin will moderate the session.

Speakers:

Brett Gerson, Commercial Policy Office at US Embassy

Victor Shen, Chief Legal Counsel at Henkel

Su Sun, Vice President at Economists Incorporated

Practice Areas

Antitrust and Competition